York County Council Workshop
December 14, 2021
1070 Heckle Boulevard, Rock Hill, SC
Large Conference Room
6:00pm

The York County Council met on the above date for a York County Council Workshop at 6:00pm located at 1070 Heckle Boulevard, Large Conference Room, Rock Hill, South Carolina. The following Council members were present: Vice-Chairman Robert Winkler, Council member Tom Audette, Council member Allison Love, Chairwoman Christi Cox, Council member Brandon Guffey, Council member William “Bump” Roddey, and Council member Joel Hamilton. Also present were County Manager, David Hudspeth, Assistant County Manager, Mike Moore, Assistant County Manager/Finance Director, Kevin Madden, County Attorney Michael Kendree, Assistant County Attorney Laura Dover and Clerk to Council, Karen Brogdon.

Joey Oppermann of Oppermann Law Firm was also present.

Chairwoman Christi Cox called the meeting to order.

Mr. Oppermann provided an update on the redistricting process and then presented Council members 3 proposed scenarios of redistricting in York County. Council members chose option 3 and requested to make additional modifications during the workshop.

At this time, Mr. Oppermann took suggestions from each Council member on recommendations to their district lines. Mr. Oppermann made these modifications during the workshop on an interactive map, which allowed Council members to view the changes in real time.

After several hours of modifications, Council members agreed on a draft scenario that is subject to additional changes after first reading of the ordinance on December 20th.

There being no further discussion, the meeting adjourned at approximately 11:00pm.
